Susan's Muffin Ministry

We will be making muffins this Monday, 1:00 PM, in the church kitchen.

If possible, please bring muffin mix. Hope you can join us.

Thank you for your support!

Veterans Day

As Veterans Day approaches, we are gathering a list of those attending our church who have served in the military. If this is you, would you please give your name, branch of service and years of service (example 1942-1946) to the church office or put the information on the back of the communication cards. An "honor-roll" list of those who have served will be in the newsletter on the Sunday before Veterans Day.

Coffee Fellowship

Volunteers needed for Coffee Fellowship Hour on Sundays October through December.

It works well to have 2-3 people to provide and serve together.

The sign-up board is in Liston Hall.

Thanks for your support.

PW Circle Meetings

The Presbyterian Women will start their 2019-2020 Series Study "YOUR BEAUTIFUL PURPOSE: Discovering and Enjoying What God Can Do Through You" in October. With biblical insights and inspiring stories, this action-oriented guide will speak to every woman who has felt a nudge from God to engage with Him on a deeper level and to follow Him to the next place He has for her.

Circles meet during the second week of each month.

Civility Series..... A public forum to strengthen our community.

This will be the first live forum to be held in the SIPC sanctuary. Led by a moderator and featuring well known experts from within our community, the program will begin at 7 PM and will be streamed live from our website at sipres.org to the community at large. Be sure to mark your calendar.

Homecoming Luncheon

One of SIPC's favorite events is coming on Sunday, October 27th following the Sunday Service. Lots of volunteers have already committed to help the Fellowship Committee. Don't be shy to contact Sue Jones to offer your assistance.

However, the most important thing for one and all is to remember to sign up! You can do so by calling the church directly at 598-0151.

Piano and Organ Concert

Mary and Tim McKee will play a piano and organ concert on Sunday, October 13th at 4:00 PM at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 3 West Ridge Road. Music of Bach and Chopin will be featured. There is no admission fee.

Office Volunteers Needed

I will be away on vacation Monday, October 28, through Friday, November 1. I am in need of volunteers for the front desk and would appreciate your help. The main duties include answering the phone, greeting visitors and parents and enjoying the chatter and laughter of the Preschool children. It's a lot of fun. Morning and afternoon shifts are available. If you volunteer for the morning shift on October 31, you will get to see the children dressed up in their Halloween costumes. They will even visit you at the front desk. I would be happy to train you on how to use the phone and other basic duties. If you are interested, please call me at 598-0151.

I will need any information that you would like to include in the Newsletter for Friday, November 8 by 12:00 PM on Tuesday, October 22.

Thanks for your support,
Betty Gorman

Give Thanks

Please send your church thanksgivings to Betty to include in future newsletters. Let us give thanks for people spotted "reflecting the face of Jesus" through their service, kindness, hospitality and generosity. Keep your eyes open for the fruit of the Spirit ripening around Skidaway Island Presbyterian Church!

Thank you!

Prayer List

We will keep all the names on the prayer list for one month unless continuous prayer is needed. Please let us know the status of your family and friends on our list.

All active military members will remain on the list.

Thank you!

A Gracious Christmas - First Presbyterian Church

SIPC's Mission

To nurture Christians who by their words and actions reflect the face of Jesus to the world.

SIPC's Vision

To be a family of faith in Christ serving one another in the spirit of God's love.

SIPC's Values

Using the Holy Scripture as our foundation of faith, we seek:

- Truth tempered by love
- Service above self
- Care for one another
- Mutual respect and accountability
- A personal relationship with Christ

Creation Care Workshop Hosted by St. Peter's

Georgia Interfaith Power & Light, a statewide organization that works with faith communities and environmental stewardship, will be hosting the 2019 Coastal Green Team Summit on Saturday, October 19, 8 AM – 2 PM at St. Peter's Episcopal Church. The keynote is Dr. Matthew Sleeth, executive director of Blessed Earth and author of the recently published Reforesting Faith: What Trees Teach Us about the Nature of God and His Love for Us.

What Trees Teach Us about the Nature of God and His Love for Us.

All the details, including a registration form, are available at:

<http://www.gipl.org/event/2019-coastal-gts/>

Among the breakout sessions topics/presenters:

Forming a Green/Creation Care Team, offered by Codi Norred, GIPL Program Director. A presentation by the Caretta Research Project (sea turtles); a presentation from One Hundred Miles, the coastal environmental organization, a presentation from Chandra Brown, Influence Advocacy LLC: a seasoned advocacy and communications strategist; we will learn about discussing environmental stewardship across political differences

The Chanticleer Chorus

On January 19, 2020, Friends of Cathedral Music will present Chanticleer, the GRAMMY®-award winning male chorus, known around the world as "an orchestra of voices". The performance of Faith of our Fathers will feature works from the 12th century, English, Spanish, and Mexican polyphony, traditional American works, and a new commission. Chanticleer's performance will be our ticketed event for the 2019-2020 season.
